

Heated Spray Tip

Singular block which is heated via mobile heat system. Has easy access clean out port on the side. The Vortex & T7500 can work in 20° weather.

Engine coolant is circulated thru a high efficient plate type heat exchanger filled with heat exchanger fluid. The heated fluid circulates throughout the emulsion system, including emulsion tank, hoses and spray tip. The average system temp is 140° f.